

Leave the no call list alone i am very happy with the way it is working. Why do you always want to change something that is working. Who is getting paid off to get you people to change this law. Does some company always have their hands in your pockets to change a law that is not to their best interest.